International Society for Archaeological Prospection

Bursary Summary: to assist students who are members of the ISAP, who have had papers or posters accepted for formal presentation at the Archaeological Prospection conference in Izmir 2011 and need help towards the cost of attending the event. There is no restriction as to country of residence. There will be a number of bursaries offered at 200 Euros per award.

- Bursaries are open to students (Undergraduate, Masters or PhD/Doctorate) who are ISAP members and have had papers (oral or poster) accepted for formal presentation at the 9th International Conference on Archaeological Prospection 2011.
- The value of each award will be 200 Euros. The number of bursaries available is limited.
- The application must be made on the prescribed form as soon as possible, following receipt of notification that the paper or poster has been accepted by the Conference Organising Committee. In case that this Committee has not reached a decision about the acceptance by the closing date for the bursary scheme, the bursary application shall be submitted by the closing date with a corresponding note.
- A bursary will be withdrawn in the event of a paper for presentation being rejected.
- The application form must be accompanied by a short supporting letter from the student indicating why they should receive this award.
- The application form and supporting letter shall be emailed to the address given on the form by the deadline stated.
- ISAP will withhold the bursaries if no suitable applicants are forthcoming.
- The applicant must immediately notify ISAP if he/she is unable to attend the event for which a bursary has been requested.
- The bursary will be given in person to the successful applicant(s) at the 9th International Conference on Archaeological Prospection 2011 in Izmir. The bursary is not transferable to another conference.
- The decisions reached will be regarded as final and no further correspondence relating to the allocation of awards can be entered into after the awards have been announced.

Applications will only be accepted from students who are current ISAP members
